Developing eagerness and love for learning

Dear GCA families,

We recently added a new student to one of our classrooms. As she came in for her entrance test her mom shared with me a note she had written that simply said, "God chose me to go to GCA! Yay! Yay! Yay!" Of course I felt quite moved by her excitement to begin a new school, but it also caused me to think about our roles each and every day as children of God. What if we woke up each and every day with the attitude as parents, "God gave me you, woohoo!" Of course certain times are easier than others to have those thoughts. I must tell you I am constantly amazed and humbled that God has chosen me to work with such a fantastic group of professionals to come alongside your family in training and teaching your children. As parents and as educators our purpose is to love and grow these children into strong young men and women of God. What a compliment that God knows us, created us, and has chosen us for this role. I strongly believe that God has chosen each and every student and teacher to be part of our GCA family for this year. As we begin each day may we walk in confidence knowing, "that God is always at work for the good of everyone who loves him. They are the ones God has chosen for his purpose," Romans 8:28

Honored to partner with your family,
